LOCAL NEWS.

Sam Wheeler, of Grassy Creek, who has been very ill of flux, is well again.

J. D. Chambers, Jr., on Friday last, brought in a fine turp which weighed 3 pounds 11 ounces.

Ben Stamper, of Morgan county, recently brought to this office a turp which weighed six pounds.

The fruit trees which have and are now being delivered by C. W. Horton at this place, are in fine condition.

Mrs. James Samples, of Mize, who has been very ill for sometime, is still very low, and is not expected to recover.

FOR SALE—A No. 1 improved Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine, at a bargain.
 H. C. HENDON.

Dolph Draun, of Hindman, passed through here Saturday with 16 mules and horses for the Mt. Sterling market.

Judge I. M. Vannadall writing from Frenchburg says: "A. J. Ring's house burned Sunday at Cornwell. Loss $2,000. The jail here burned last night."

The trial of the negro band, Felix Cockrell, was begun on Saturday last. We have not yet learned the result, but it is to be hoped that he will get his just deserts. Judge Cooper is presiding in the case.

Dolph Draun, deputy sheriff of Knott county, informs us that three of the notorious Wright gang—Wash Craft, Geo. Johnson and Bill Burks ambushed and shot Bill Johnson, a citizen of Pike, in that county, about ten days ago.

Elbert Samples, a few days since, brought to this office a fine black walnut hulled; also a hull containing two distinct and well developed nuts. "The oldest inhabitant" has been interviewed and he never "saw the like of that." Has any one?

Courier Journal: Alonzo Fugot, the noted counterfeiter, was yesterday sentenced by Judge Barr, of the Federal Court, to five years' imprisonment. He will be sent to Detroit at an early day. Alfred Little escaped sentence by making an application for a new trial.

Courier Journal: A Democratic convention will be held at Hazel Green, Wolfe county, on the 27th to nominate candidates for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney. Hon. John E. Cooper, of West Liberty, Morgan county, will probably be renominated for Judge without opposition.

The Bourbon News contains the following sensible advice: "Don't make an idiot of yourself by standing in the post-office lobby and reading your mail. If you find it difficult to control a foolish curiosity, grab your mail and run like the Old Serpent was after you to some secluded spot. Don't bore well-bred people to death."

In the Morgan circuit court last week, a witness called before the grand jury refused to qualify, when Judge Cooper fined him $20 for contempt of court and sentenced him to jail until the May term. That is the way our Cousin John puts 'em through, and accounts for the high esteem which the people of this district have for him.

The magnificent bell which now calls "sinners to repentance" at the Presbyterian Church, at this place, was presented to the church here by the Presbyterian Church at Nicholasville. It originally cost $250, is very fine tone and it is estimated can be heard 15 miles. The Presbyterians will mount it soon, and a test of its lungs will then be made.

Sentinel-Democrat, Nov. 12: On Tuesday afternoon last as Nelson Trimble was about to ride away from his store on horse back, his horse fell and rolled completely over him. It was feared that his injuries were quite serious, but save a few bruises, aches and pains, he was able to attend to business in a short time. He had a narrow escape.

Married—On Thursday, Nov. 5th, at the residence of the bride's father, J. T. Stamper, near Hazel Green, Robt. Lee Greer, of Morgan county, to Miss Caroline Rosa Stamper, Rev. W. B. Ragan officiating. After the ceremony, the bride and groom, accompanied by Miss Mary McNabb and H. S. Stamper, Miss Jessie Ann Stamper and J. B. McNabb, left for their future home in Morgan, to commence life in earnest.

Last Wednesday was our regular stock sale day at Hazel Green, but the depression in the markets below, led people generally to believe that there would be no transactions in stock here. However, a few men came in with stock, and they found buyers. The following list of the stock sold, and the prices will be found very good considering the ruling figures at other points. Alex. James sold one calf at $3.50; Mason Jones two calves at $13.25; Elsie Shockey one calf at $5.25; one at $6, and one yearling at $10.50; J. B. Rose one yoke two-year-old steers at $32.50; Wm. Brewer two yearlings at $30.50; W. T. Swango 10 calves at $80; David Wilson one male at $95.

PERSONAL.

W. H. Gills, with McCord & Aydelott, buttern, Louisville, is just now making a tour of inspection. He struck this town on Friday last successfully, showed out for West Liberty on Saturday, where he sold two good bills, returned here on Monday, and left for Campion in the afternoon, accompanied by C. W. Shively, who represents Ambush, Burgunder & Co., Baltimore clothing. They are both clever boys, and we commend them to the merchants of this section.

Seneca S. Swann, who worked on this paper on several occasions, and who, while here, became known as the silent or mute compositor, on account of his modest, retiring manner, informed us Monday that he would affiliate this community with his permanent presence after to-morrow. It is to be hoped that some of our people may be able to induce him to talk, even "just a little bit."

Mrs. Emma Samuel, who has been confined to her bed for some time, was removed to the home of her brother-in-law, Ben Samuel, of Fleming last Monday. She was unable to sit up and a bed was placed in the back upon which she was removed.

Arch Lyon, of Rousseau, paid Hazel Green a flying visit last Saturday, returning home Sunday, as escort of "Nancy" Candler. If Arch's wife hears of this there will be trouble in the family.

C. W. Shively, of Campbellville, Ky., with Ambush, Burgunder & Co., of 17 and 19 Hopkins Place, Baltimore, Md., was in town last week. See his card in this issue of our paper.

Mrs. Pat and Mrs. Ben Samuel, of Poplar Plains, Fleming county, who have been visiting their sister-in-law, Mrs. R. J. Samuel, returned home last Monday.

Mrs. Gov. Granville Evans, accompanied by her son, Douglas Jerrold, of Campion, Sunday, as escort of "Nancy" Candler, returning home Sunday.

Miss Ella J. Johnson, who has been visiting Hazel, returned home on Wednesday evening under the escort of James Dennis, of the same place.

J. Taylor Day left for Mt. Sterling on Saturday to attend court at that place, and will bring his wife and daughters home.

Hon. D. S. Godsey, Hon. W. O. Mize, W. T. Swango and H. Franklin Pieratt attended court at Mt. Sterling last Monday.

W. H. Nickell, of Hazel, spent Sunday last with his wife, who is the accomplished teacher of our public school.

Mrs. Lou Day and Rev. J. T. Pieratt attended the funeral of Mrs. Lou Turner, at West Liberty, on last Friday.

John Howerton, who purchased an interest in the Champion mills, has moved his family to Hazel Green.

Dr. J. B. Taulbee accompanied Mrs. Samuel and her son, John, on their way to Fleming county.

We understand that Hon. W. P. Taulbee left home on Sunday for Washington, D. C.

J. Taylor Whaley, of this place, is visiting friends in the blue grass region.

Mrs. P. M. Thomas, who has been visiting in Hazel, returned home last week.

L. W. Mapel moved to his farm one mile from town Monday.

Death of Mrs. H. Clay Turner.
 [Sentinel-Democrat.]

The numerous friends of H. Clay Turner will be exceedingly pained to hear of the death of his charming and devoted wife, which occurred at the Turner House, in this city, Tuesday night November 10, 1885, at about midnight.

Mrs. Lou Turner was the daughter of Judge W. W. Cox, of West Liberty, and was born and raised in Morgan county. She was 35 years old last April. She had been married for some years but no children had ever blessed the union, and she had but recently made an effort to adopt some child on whom to shower a wealth of maternal affection.

Several weeks ago she and her husband went on a visit to Cincinnati, where she was taken ill with the flux, and from which she died after a period of long and patient suffering.

Mrs. Turner was from early life a zealous member of the Christian Church, and to her influence and labors is largely due the building of the new Christian Church at West Liberty. She was a loving and faithful wife who filled every measure of the desires of a husband who was devoted to her, and to whom this death was a terrible blow. But her, as well as she, has the Christian's hope, and through his sorrows and tears he can read the peaceful lines: "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

We unite with all who knew this noble countess in extending to him a warm and earnest sympathy.

A Remarkable Family.
 The survivors of the Cox family, who were raised in the neighborhood of what is now known as Cox's Mill, in this county, are all men and women of fine health, robust frame and remarkable longevity. The following is a list of their names and ages: Wm. Cox, this county, 81; Cynthia Lewis, wife of Price Lewis of Menifee, 77; James Cox, this county, 74; Derinda Stamper, mother of J. T. and L. G. Stamper, this county, 71; Dr. B. F. Cox, of Mt. Sterling, 68; Anna Derinda, wife of Arch Day of Morgan, and mother of Judge Day, of Maytown, 61; Elizabeth Pieratt, of Morgan, 64. Total age, 496 years; average age, up to the time the census was taken, some 10 days since, 70 years, 10 months, 8 days, 15 hours, 42 minutes, 51 seconds. Our information is based upon data taken by one interested, and is, therefore, correct.

The average weight of the seven is 200 pounds. We doubt if there is another family in the State, seven in number, as old, who are as active, and who carry their age so well. The Cox family is proverbial in its hospitality, and the writer happens to know it with just cause, as he is indebted to Dr. B. F. Cox, of Mt. Sterling, for many kindnesses.

A Jolly Crowd of Good Fellows.
 The jolliest crowd of boatmen that ever passed through our town, stopped here last Saturday night. They were en route to Lost Creek, where they live. Having sold their logs at Otter Creek at good prices for cash, they were in a good humor with all mankind. The party consisted of Capt. Jesse T. Davis, Z. Taylor Campbell, G. W. Smith, John W. Davis, Eugene McIntosh, J. G. Wells, and Phil Roper, colored. Each of them subscribed and paid for THE HERALD for one year, and told us they intended to get their friends to do likewise. Capt. Jesse Davis not only a wheel-horse but a whole four-horse team, and the friends who were with him are all gentlemen whom we would be glad to see every time they visit our place. May they live long and prosper.

School Report.
 From an examination of my pupils on Nov. 13th, I find that in proportion to the studies of each, the grade stands as follows in the different classes:

Highest grade in A class, Harrison Lindon, 96; Shelby Risner, 95. Highest grade in B class, Diana Walter, 72; Jas. H. Risner, 56; Tennie Walter, 50; A. J. Walter, 66; Willie Walker, 52. Highest grade in C class, Jimmie Wilson, 89; Lizzie Lindon, 75; Ely Elam, 50; Miles Lindon, 76; Arramey Whitaker, 64; Rosa Belle Lindon, 68; John Whitaker, 51. Highest grade in D class, Ettie Wilson, 86; Kelee Risner, 80; Lullie Walter, 78.

CORRESPONDENCE.

EASTERN KENTUCKY NEWS BY COUNTRIES.

Reported by Special Correspondents from All Points in the Mountains.

WOLFE COUNTY.

CAMPION, Nov. 14.—S. D. Shackelford paid a flying visit to the saw mill on Devil's Creek last week, and says he enjoys buggy riding very much, especially when situated and circumstances as he was on that occasion. He says that until recently he thought a marsh not very attractive, but he has found a Marsh on that creek which he visits frequently, and says that it affords him infinite pleasure.

Quite a number of the young folks of our town went to Bear Pen Sunday to preaching. S. D. Shackelford and Miss Bertha Marsh, G. B. Stamper and Miss Dora Hanks, etc., which includes me and my girl.

We saw an ear of corn to-day raised by S. S. Combs, which measured 14 1/2 inches in length. Mr. Combs has so much of this kind of corn that he will have to increase his barns.

J. N. Vaughn, our champion horse jockey, swapped horses the other day with James Kash, of Mt. Sterling. We understand that Mr. Vaughn wants to buy a horse.

G. B. Stamper was in town Sunday. He is teaching the public school at Greenville, which will terminate in about two weeks.

Rev. G. G. Ragan preached at Bear Pen school-house on last Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m., and also at town at 3 in the afternoon.

T. F. Stamper was in town Saturday, and says he intends going to school here as soon as his school on Red River expires.

Wm. Byrd, our deputy sheriff, is having erected for himself a nice and commodious dwelling.

J. M. Quillen is very low again. Without some unexpected relief his earthly career is short.

G. T. Center is building a new store house, which he intends filling with goods in a few days.

Misses Eliza McClain and Sue Godsey, of Hazel Green, were in town yesterday. Rev. A. C. Byrd passed through town yesterday, en route home from his school.

Charles Byrd, of Calaboose, was in town this week on business.

G. T. Center is off on a business trip to Mt. Sterling.

J. C. Lykins is attending court at West Liberty this week.

RED RIVER, Nov. 11.—We are sorry to chronicle the death of Mrs. Matilda Haney, wife of J. Ballard Haney, who died on the 8th inst., after a short illness. She leaves a husband and two small children to mourn her loss, beside a host of friends.

Rose & Wells are preparing to put up the saw mill which they recently purchased of R. P. Fitch, of Lexington.

Corn gathering employs the time of our farmers now, and the yield is very good.

The wheat crop in this section looks well, but there was not much sown.

Born—On the 6th inst., to the wife of Clay Rose, a girl.

MENIFEE COUNTY.

ROTHWELL, Nov. 13.—T. M. Cannoy, besides being a good black driver, is one of the best hands to make fires I know of, and while Tom is on the line "Long fellow" gets to lie in his bed of mornings, while Tom is making a good fire and singing his little song, "Old and only in the way." Girls, remember this one trait of Tom's. As for Harlan Cassity, the other black driver, he likes to take his morning nap fire or no fire.

We don't know as we are any judge but we think our old friend Sol. Rothwell wants to take to himself one of the fairer sex. He asked a young lady a few days ago if she hadn't rather be an old man's darling than a young man's slave. Solomon says if she takes the hint this will be one of his wisest sayings.

Moses Roberts, of our town, left last Sunday leading his children through the wilderness of Salt Lick en route to the promised land, Bath county. May his children make no golden calves on their journey.

John Center, deputy sheriff of Wolfe county, passed through here last Saturday, en route to Lexington Ky., with Miss Rachel Brown of Wolfe county, taking her to the Lexington asylum.

Quite an interesting meeting conducted by Rev. J. B. Nickell, is being held at Mt. Zion, with several additions to the Christian Church.

J. F. Osborn, a prominent merchant of Frenchburg, was in our town on last Sunday. He seems to be an admirer of black eyes.

Miss Mary B. Kash, one of Mt. Sterling's fairest daughters, is visiting the Misses Rothwell.

John C. Day and J. J. Byrne, of Frenchburg, were in our town last Friday on business.

Geo. H. Jones, agent for H. Herman, Ashland, Ky., is here buying lumber. The Christian Church house at Cornwell is nearing completion.

Miss Laura and Annie Rothwell are both on the sick list.

"On The Wing" and "Jay" what has become of you?

James B. Cord is on the sick list this week.

MORGAN COUNTY.

CANEY, Nov. 12.—Joe. C. Lykins, of Campion, passed here en route to West Liberty. He stopped with his father Sunday night, and went to West Liberty Monday morning.

It was with surprise that we read the letter of T. P. Collinsworth. It appears that he is much offended and don't know who to be mad at.

J. W. Thornton, U. S. gauger, passed here yesterday on business connected with the internal revenue service.

Daniel A. Williams, the boss cabinet maker, is turning out some excellent work this fall.

Judge William Lykins, who has been sick for some time, is able to be out again. Success and prosperity to THE HERALD.

SWEET BYE AND BYE.

MARTOWN, Nov. 13.—Oscar Young's dwelling house with everything he had was burned up. This leaves he and his family in destitute circumstances. The people of this neighborhood will help them all they can. We think the good people around and in Hazel Green ought to help them some. Let us see who will be the first to make the start. God loves a cheerful giver.

James J. Cannoy, of Spencer Station, has been in town several days this week on business connected with the White sewing machine company.

Hon. D. S. Godsey, of Hazel Green, was in town this morning on business.

LICK SKILLER.

BREATHITT COUNTY.

JACKSON, Nov. 13.—C. W. Horton, the fruit tree man, is in town this week, and is now ready to deliver trees, and will be obliged to parties if they will call and get them. He has the best fruit trees ever saw. Every man should have an orchard of them.

Hox Allen, of Rousseau, was in town Wednesday on special business, with the same old smile on his face. We would be pleased to have him call again.

John W. Taulbee, of Jefferson Taulbee, on Monday last, two calves at $12, one calf of James Banks at $8; one colt of Harve Horton at $25.

Robert Prie, accompanied by Miss Lucy Brandenburg, of Millers Creek, were visiting their friend, Mrs. McGuire, the past week.

Willie Spencer reports that he gathered 150 bushels of good, sound corn per acre, grown on his farm this year.

D. B. Redwine is absent this week attending Morgan county court, and will not return until the 25th inst.

Miss Mattie Combs, teacher of school district No. 12, in this county, closed her school Friday last.

Married—On the 12th inst, William Brewer and Miss Sarah South. Quite a lively young couple.

Joseph Markofsky, of Mt. Sterling, was in town Monday buying hides, roots, wool, feathers, etc.

Phillip Hays is making his sorghum this week. Jack Frost was about to get ahead of him.

Greenberry Snowden has declined the idea of moving to Lee county until spring.

Work on the Presbyterian Church is progressing with Rev. W. B. Cooper as boss.

Mr. Hodge, a well known geologist in this county, gave us a call Tuesday.

Mrs. Lydia Snowden has been visiting friends in Lee county this week.

Wm. Hager and Smith Adams, of Salt-yersville, were in town Tuesday.

Dr. W. T. Wilson bought of Capt. W. L. Hurst one cow at $18.

LOST CREEK, Nov. 10.—We learn that Dr. J. L. Duff is preparing to move to Jackson, and will engage in hotel keeping and resume his practice as a physician. We are sorry to give the doctor up, but we need him down there to keep hotel for us when we visit the country east. He has a nice lady to help him, and we wish him and family great success in the future.

Several of our citizens who have been absent at Louisville in the Al. Little case for the past three weeks have returned home. They report the case unfavorable for Little.

We were blessed with a good raft tide on the 8th inst. Capt. William Smith and G. T. Strong got off several rafts of logs. It will help our boys considerably.

S. H. and A. A. Combs are the boss saw-loggers in this part of Breathitt. They have a fine lot of poplar logs for the spring market.

Day & Noble are running their large steam saw mill at Capt. S. H. Combs' store.

Hogs are doing very well on the mast, but we haven't hogs enough to consume it. The people of this vicinity are very busy hauling logs and gathering corn.

READER.

LOOK HERE.—Read this, please.—We have carried slow customers until we are loaded down, and it is impossible to continue to credit those whose notes and accounts are past due. We must have pay from you, and will take live stock at its value on notes and accounts. Do not call for credit, even if you are good, if you are owing us and have no settled. We mean what we say. J. T. & F. DAY.

Make the Nomination Unanimous.
 [Mt. Sterling Gazette.]

Judge John E. Cooper seems to have no opposition for Judge of the Circuit Court, and we presume the convention which meets at Hazel Green on the 27th will give him the nomination unanimously.

We look upon the position of a Judge as a non-political one, and believe that the best men should be elected to fill such important trusts, and we think Judge Cooper has demonstrated that he is the proper person for the position by reason of his ability, integrity, dignity and impartiality, and as a partisan journal, holding political views in opposition to Judge Cooper, we very cheerfully endorse the action of the convention in advance, believing that Judge Cooper is the right man in the right place, and the people should keep him there.

Breen's Liniment is pronounced by all who have used it to be the greatest remedy for rheumatism, sprains, cuts, bruises, etc. Sold by

J. T. & F. DAY, Hazel Green, D. D. LANDSAW, Stillwater, CASSIDY & ROBINSON, Campion.

A Much Needed Enterprise.
 Hazel Green is making rapid strides towards the dignity of a city. Another new enterprise has just been inaugurated, and we will soon boast of a first class livery, sale and feed stable in our town. That this will fill a long felt want is patent to all who have ever given the matter a thought, and especially to commercial men who travel this section, and who have heretofore experienced great difficulty in obtaining proper conveyances. Swango & Pieratt are the enterprising gentlemen composing the new firm, and are now having the lumber sawed to build the stable, which will be 25 by 50 feet. They will have first-class turnouts for hire, buy and sell stock, &c., and should be patronized liberally.

Breen's Liniment is certainly the best combination of remedies for corns, neuralgic pains in the back and side, etc., ever produced.

J. T. & F. DAY, Hazel Green, D. D. LANDSAW, Stillwater, CASSIDY & ROBINSON, Campion.

Letter List.
 The following is a list of letters remaining in the postoffice at Hazel Green: LADIES' LIST.

Victorie Lane, Frances Puckett, 2 Elizabeth Owens, Fannie C. Burke, Ed C. Hendley, Ed C. Hendley, Will G. Frow, 2 George Fugate, John Puseall.

Persons calling for any of the above letters, will please say "advertised."

JOHN H. EVANS, P. M.

Breen's Liniment removes knots and all enlargements on horses or other stock. No cure no pay. Sold by

J. T. & F. DAY, Hazel Green, D. D. LANDSAW, Stillwater, CASSIDY & ROBINSON, Campion.

Rev. D. G. B. Demaree, P. E., will conduct his quarterly meeting at New Bethel school-house on the 21st inst.
